

As a clinical trial participant, you can expect to:

- Positively impact the health of millions, including friends, family, and future generations
- Improve and educate yourself about your own health
- Gain access to quality medical care and medications not available through other means
- Receive financial compensation for time and travel

Call today to learn more about the participation process and find out if one of our studies is right for you. Insurance is not needed to participate.

Partners Advancing Medicine

Currently Enrolling Studies

- Diabetes (Type 2)
- Heart Failure
- Hepatitis C
- Statin Intolerance
- Hot Flashes
- Overactive Bladder

Coming Soon

- Hypertension

Why consider research?

Many patients consider clinical research as a care option because they may learn more about their health and receive access to quality medical care at no cost. Overall, clinical research positively impacts the health of millions, including friends, family, and future generations, by leading to new medications, vaccines, and medical devices.

See if you QUALIFY TODAY

843.849.1880 | PMGofCharleston.com